Sirimba School Model Design Competition by Karibu Kwetu Solar Trading Ltd.

To Whom It May Concern,

Women in Renewable Energy (WiRE) is honored to extend its official endorsement and lend its full support to Karibu Kwetu Solar Trading Limited's Sirimba School Model Design Competition. We recognize and commend Karibu Kwetu Solar Trading Ltd.'s commitment to fostering sustainable development and empowering communities through innovative and impactful initiatives.

This competition, focused on the design of a model school for the Sirimba community in Windhoek, Namibia, represents a significant opportunity to create an inspiring and functional learning environment for the next generation. WiRE is particularly inspired by Karibu Kwetu's vision to integrate sustainable design principles and renewable energy solutions into this vital community project.

As a media partner, WiRE will leverage its expertise and global network to ensure the Sirimba School Model Design Competition reaches a diverse and highly qualified audience of architectural experts. We are confident that our collaborative efforts will attract world-class talent, resulting in creative and innovative designs that will benefit the students of Windhoek for years to come.

We have full confidence in Karibu Kwetu Solar Trading Ltd.'s ability to execute this competition with integrity and excellence. Their dedication to community empowerment and sustainable development is truly commendable. We believe the Sirimba School Model Design Competition will serve as a beacon of inspiration, demonstrating the power of thoughtful design and renewable energy to transform lives.

We look forward to witnessing the positive impact of this project on the Sirimba community and the broader region.

Sincerely,

Joanna Osawe

The energy industry is unique in its global reach, touching every single person on earth. Whether you work in the sector or not, you consume energy simply by being part of society. At WiRE, we believe in the power of collaboration to accelerate positive change in this vital industry. That's why we exclusively partner with NGOs, academic institutions, governmental organizations, conferences, and social enterprises who share our commitment to a sustainable and equitable energy future. By joining forces, we amplify our impact and achieve more than we ever could alone. Through these strategic partnerships, we develop impactful programs that support and empower individuals and organizations across the energy sector.
